PRESS RELEASE

TOM HARRINGTON WINS UNIVERSITY AWARD

Tom Harrington of C.B.C. Radio Montreal has been selected as recipient of the McGill - Concordia Media Award for 1984-85. The Award is given annually to a member of the Montreal area media who offers outstanding support to University sports at both McGill and Concordia.

Harrington is the third C.B.C. staff member to win the Award. In the initial year, 1982-83 the plaque was shared by George Springate of Newswatch Sports and John Hancock of C.B.C. Radio. Last year Louis Senay of the Journal de Montreal was the recipient.

The Award is an expression of appreciation from the Sports Information offices of both McGill and Concordia, for someone who has given an extra effort to the coverage of University sports.
